

Appendix A: pCODR Clinician Conflict of Interest Declarations

Please note: Each registered clinician must complete their own separate pCODR Clinician Conflict of Interest Declarations Template even if the submission is made jointly.

Name of registered clinician: Christopher Venner

Name of drug and indication under review: Combination of Lenalidomide, Bortezomib and Dexamethasone

Conflict of Interest Declaration

To maintain the objectivity and credibility of the pCODR process, all participants in the pCODR review process must disclose any conflicts of interest. A registered clinician must declare any potential conflicts of interest that may influence or have the appearance of influencing the information submitted. A conflict of interest declaration is requested for transparency — it does not negate or preclude the use of the clinician input.

Examples of conflicts of interest include, but are not limited to:

- financial support from the pharmaceutical industry or other entities (e.g., educational or research grants, honoraria, gifts, and salary)
- affiliations, or personal or commercial relationships with drug manufacturers or other interest groups.

Section A: Payment Received

1. Have you received any payments over the previous two years from any company or organization that may have a direct or indirect interest in the drug under review?
